Escape from the fire

Chapter 1: Grandad

Robert was excited. He was going to stay with his grandfather at the weekend. Lucy, his cousin, was going to stay too. She was the same age as Robert and they were good friends.

While Robert was packing his bag, the telephone rang noisily. Robert answered it. It was Lucy. "I hope we have a great weekend," said Lucy. "So do I," said Robert. "It's always good fun at Grandad's."

While Robert was travelling on the bus, he thought about Grandad. There were two things about him that Robert and Lucy really liked. First, he was very, very clever. He was an inventor. He invented lots of things, but mostly he invented new kinds of mobile phones. The other thing they liked was that Grandad loved history. His house was full of history books. When Robert and Lucy came to stay, Grandad told them exciting stories from history.

Robert knocked on Grandad's door. Mrs Green, the maid, opened it. "Your grandfather is in his study." Robert hurried into Grandad's study. Grandad was sitting in an armchair. There was a big bandage on his foot.

"I've hurt my ankle," Grandad said. "The doctor says I mustn't walk on it for a few days. I think Lucy has disappeared." Grandad leaned towards him and whispered, "I think she has travelled back in time."

Chapter 2: The time-travel phones

Grandad showed him a mobile phone. "Look at this," he said. "This is not an ordinary phone. This is my newest invention. With this mobile phone you can travel back in time." Grandad nodded proudly. "I've worked on this invention for two years." "You put in the date you want to visit. Then you put in the place you want to visit. Then you put in the password, Adventure." "And now one of the time-travel phones is missing. I think Lucy has used the missing phone to travel back in time."
